Tealight Holders,Very Rustic,Hand Carved.

Hand Carved Tealights,i enjoyed carving,and using my Chisel,which i have'nt used in a while.

Getting even closer with wood,and creating Personality,the main reason i used my Chisel,was because my Boring Drill bit was in need of servicing.

It was a good excuse to be more creative.

Starting to take shape.

When working with a Chisel,the lines and curves are not always going to be the same,every wooden project,that is hand made,with a Chisel.will be different.

After a time consuming enjoyable process,more fun comes in the form of sanding and shaping.

Very Rustic and ideal for indoors and outside,still some more attention needed.

The affect and shape of the candles also offer a nice colour,to go with the affect of Being rustic looking,and softens the overall look.

Very Nice,and after lots of Sanding and Time Consuming attention,this is the look i was after.

The Picture's Speak for themselves.

Here is another Rustic Design, and a different shape, in which the Wood determines how it will be shaped.

The colour and Patterns just look so appealing and you cant help your self in wanting to feel the smoothness and curves of the Candle Holder.

Some of the Designs are a one off because of the Wood, which decides how you shape it.

The Candle's offer some softness to the Wood, and these days you can insert any colour of Tealight, depending on your Mood, such as:

Red.

Orange.

Purple.

Green.

Or even Brown.

I look at them and think they actually do look like a bar of Chocolate, like a Milky Bar. (Teasing you).

Curves.

Curves and more Curves.

Closeup on Softness.

Wow,More Personality.

Rough,Smooth and Soft Looking,this sums up these Tealight Candle Holders and Ready provide Calmness and Tranquility,as well as a Warm Glowing affect.

And here are Nice Glowing Pictures.

Wow.

Love the Warmth and Glow.

Soft.

Glowing.

And a Trio of Light.

Wooden Tealight Holders can be added to any where such as your Living Room,Dining Room,Hallway,Kitchen or even your Shed and Can Brighten up and add Cheer as well.

Romance,thats where they can also add a bit more Sparkle to the Occassion.

Valentines Day,Birthdays,Anniversaries.

Or even just to add more Warmth to Your Room.

Using Tealights can also give offan Aroma to Freshen the Room.

What ever the Occassion,Enjoy.
